

Guidelines for VPL in modularised VET

To facilitate for more flexible learning pathways in adult VET, Norway has conducted trials on modularised and workbased training trajectories. This modularisation will now be implemented as the standard model for adult VET, with VPL as an integral element. Camilla Alfsen, Senior Adviser at the Norwegian Directorate for Higher Education and Skills, will briefly present this new, modularised VET and the development of guidelines for VPL in this new learning context.