

Sandra Cheyne: Presentation description

'Impartial career guidance and the development of career management skills have a significant contribution to play in, not only helping to deliver inclusive economic growth, but also in equipping individuals of all ages with the skills to plan and manage their career decisions; now and in the future.

The type of society we will be in the future is reliant on the choices that people make about their future.'

Scotland's Career Strategy 2020:Moving Forward

This short session will cover the coaching approach to career guidance utilised in the all age and life-long national career service for Scotland and the central role that the identification and development of career management skills plays within the career guidance engagements to give agency to individuals.